M Ride Becomes an Official Partner of the Las Vegas Raiders

LAS VEGAS- The Las Vegas Raiders and M Ride Nevada announced their new and exciting partnership today, naming M Ride (mride.com) an Official Partner of the Las Vegas Raiders and Allegiant Stadium.

“M Ride is a proud Nevada small business that works with the best local transportation companies to provide a first class and affordable service for our customers,” said M Ride CEO and co-founder Eddy Abiano. “Fans traveling to and from Allegiant Stadium can now enjoy an affordable luxury shuttle from some of the best resorts and casinos in Las Vegas. We could not be more thrilled and proud of our new partnership with the Raiders and Allegiant Stadium.”

M Ride’s transportation platform gives local and visiting fans alike the ability to book round trip individual seats on luxury buses that shuttle them safely and comfortably from their resort and casino partners’ properties around Las Vegas. M Ride provides fans with round trip transportation to and from Allegiant Stadium in the same luxury fashion as their favorite team, players, and artists visiting the award-winning global events destination.

“We are pleased to team up with M Ride to offer their impressive list of transportation services to Raider Nation and guests of Allegiant Stadium,” said Las Vegas Raiders Senior Vice President, Chief Sales Officer Qiava Martinez.

Mride is proud to provide its customers with a frictionless and affordable experience before and after the concerts and sporting events at Allegiant Stadium, while also alleviating traffic for all fans in attendance.

Tickets for luxury shuttle seats to events at Allegiant Stadium are on sale now at mride.com.
